New Classes: Literature Searching & Systematic Reviews

Literature Search Basics

Date: Tuesday, September 3, 2020

Time: 9:00am - 10:00am

Registration:

<https://mdanderson.libcal.com/event/6961869>

Thinking about starting a literature search? This introductory class provides a broad overview of how to do an effective literature search and briefly describes the steps in the process. We'll discuss how to formulate a searchable question; select resources to search; create a search strategy; and use additional search techniques.

Introduction to Systematic Reviews

Date: Wednesday, September 30, 2020

Time: 1:00 pm - 2:00 pm

Registration:

<https://mdanderson.libcal.com/event/7025202>

Thinking about writing a systematic review? This introductory class provides a broad overview of systematic reviews and briefly describes the steps in the process. We'll discuss standards; protocols; finding, selecting, and evaluating studies; writing the results; and useful software and other tools.

Faculty Art as Medicine: Caring Through COVID-19

The Faculty Engagement Program is looking for submissions for an upcoming Faculty Art as Medicine Exhibition. The theme is Caring Through COVID-19. This theme allows faculty to share photos, drawings, paintings, sculpture, written work, or other media created during the COVID-19 pandemic.
